GENAUER HINSCHAUEN

Der Hirsch mit dem leuchtenden Geweih

Eine Legende erzählt von zwei Königstöchtern, Hildegard und Bertha, die jede Nacht zum Beten in den Wald bei Zürich gingen. Ein Hirsch mit leuchtendem Geweih wies ihnen den Weg. Ihr Vater sah darin ein Zeichen und gründete das Kloster. Paul Bodmer hat die Geschichte im Kreuzgang neben der Kirche gemalt.

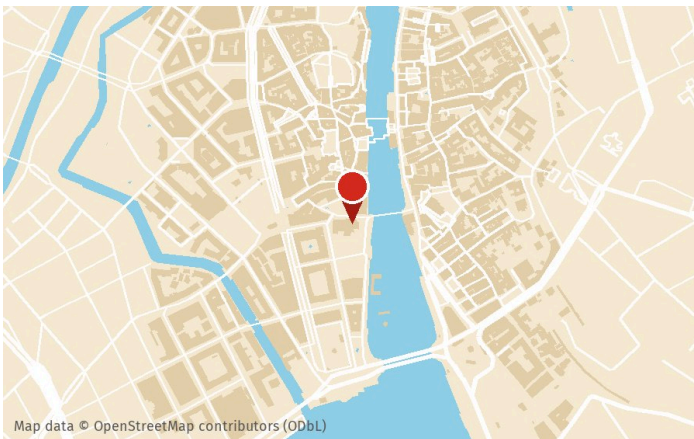

Eine Frau, die den Frieden wählte

Katharina von Zimmern wurde schon als junge Frau Äbtissin. 1524 übergab sie das Kloster freiwillig der Stadt und half so mit, dass Zürich in der Reformation Blutvergiessen erspart blieb. Danach verliess sie das Kloster und heiratete.

Fünf Fenster voller Farbe

Marc Chagall war über achtzig, als er die fünf hohen Chorfenster entwarf. Zusammen erzählen sie Geschichten aus der Bibel. Komm an einem sonnigen Morgen, wenn das Licht durch sie auf die Wände strömt.

Die Münze der Äbtissin

Schau unter das Dach des Kreuzgangs auf der Südseite: Dort liegt eine Goldmünze am Boden.

Im Mittelalter regierten die Äbtissinnen des Fraumünsters die Stadt und hatten das Recht, Zürichs Münzen zu prägen.

Das farbige Glas im Ostfenster ist eine Anspielung auf die fünf Chorfenster von Marc Chagall (1970).
