LE MONUMENT

Zytglogge

La Zytglogge est la tour de l'horloge médiévale de Berne, dressée en travers de la rue principale de la vieille ville. Elle a commencé vers 1220 comme porte de la ville, est ensuite devenue une prison, et depuis plus de 500 ans, elle donne l'heure à la ville. Chaque heure, la foule se rassemble pour regarder son petit défilé de figurines animées.

Au cœur de la vieille ville de Berne, entre les arcades de la Kramgasse à l'est et la Theaterplatz à l'ouest.

Construction	vers 1218 à 1220 comme tour-porte ; mécanisme d'horloge 1527 à 1530
Style	tour médiévale habillée en baroque tardif de 1770 à 1771
Matériaux	base en calcaire, murs supérieurs en grès, toit de tuiles, flèche recouverte de cuivre
Hauteur	54,5 m jusqu'au sommet ; 24 m jusqu'au bord du toit
Cloche des heures	fondue en 1405, environ 1400 kg
Sur place	regarder le jeu des figurines depuis la rue, et voir le mécanisme à l'intérieur lors d'une visite guidée

Au fil des siècles

- A vertical timeline with a light brown line and red circular markers. The dates are in red, and the descriptions are in black.
- 1191 ● Le duc Berthold V de Zähringen fonde la ville de Berne dans une boucle de l'Aar.
 - vers 1218 à 1220 ● La tour est construite comme porte ouest de la jeune ville.
 - vers 1270 à 1275 ● La ville s'est agrandie vers l'ouest au-delà de la tour, qui est alors surélevée d'environ 7 m.
 - 1344 à 1346 ● Devenue inutile comme porte, elle est transformée en prison.
 - 1405 ● Un grand incendie ravage Berne et vide la tour de l'intérieur. La grande cloche des heures est fondue la même année.
 - 1527 à 1530 ● Kaspar Brunner construit le mécanisme qui entraîne encore aujourd'hui les cadrans et les figurines.
 - 1770 à 1771 ● Une rénovation donne à la tour la silhouette et les couleurs qu'on voit aujourd'hui.
 - 1929 à 1930 ● Après un concours, Victor Surbek peint la façade ouest.
 - 1981 à 1983 ● Une restauration complète rend à la tour son aspect de 1770 ; en 2018, les figurines de l'horloge sont nettoyées et repeintes.

REGARDE DE PLUS PRÈS

Quatre minutes de spectacle

Arrive quelques minutes avant l'heure, côté Kramgasse. Un bouffon agite ses clochettes, un coq chante, une ronde d'ours armés défile et le barbu Chronos retourne son sablier. Puis, tout en haut dans le clocheton du toit, un chevalier doré lève son marteau et frappe l'heure.

Un ciel sur le mur

Sous le grand cadran noir et or se trouve une deuxième horloge, plus colorée. Elle montre le soleil et la lune qui traversent le zodiaque, la phase de la lune et le jour de la semaine, sur un ciel peint en noir de nuit, bleu d'aube et bleu de jour.

Le point de départ de Berne

Pendant des siècles, les distances routières de l'ancien canton de Berne se comptaient à partir de cette tour : des bornes le long des routes principales indiquaient le temps de marche en heures depuis la Zytglogge. Sous la porte, des mesures de longueur officielles sont encore fixées au mur.

Le socle

Chaque modèle de la série repose sur le même socle noir avec une plaque nominative : tes souvenirs s'alignent sur l'étagère. Construis la bande noire, emboîte-la sous le bord avant du modèle, puis les petites plaques 2 × 4 (les pieds) sous ses coins arrière. Colle ensuite l'étiquette de la page « plaque nominative » sur les tuiles beiges.

Ta plaque nominative

Imprime cette page à 100 % (sans « ajuster à la page »), découpe une étiquette le long du trait gris et colle-la sur la plaque beige 2 × 8 du socle. Conseil : du papier autocollant ou une bande de ruban adhésif transparent par-dessus la fait durer plus longtemps.

Étiquettes en trois couleurs au choix : beige, bleu marine, rouge suisse.

La pierre des heures

Regarde au pied de la tour, côté rue : une petite pierre ronde au sommet plat.

Pendant des siècles, Berne mesurait ses routes à partir de la Zytglogge. Les anciennes bornes le long des routes qui quittaient la ville indiquaient la distance en heures de marche depuis cette tour.

Le passage sous la tour est toujours un chemin piéton, et les anciennes mesures de longueur bernoises sont fixées dans son mur.
